Club's Aim To Further Friendship

Amistad Y Ayuda Club held its regular monthly meeting in Hermosa Beach on Thursday, Jan. 3, to bring together Spanish-language students and Latin Americans having the common interest of furthering understanding and friendship among people of these neighboring countries. An informal social evening, with conversation in both Spanish and English, followed the business meeting which was conducted by Mrs. Charlotte Strutzel, president of the club.

Mrs. Strutzel reported on the success of a fund-raising Mexican dinner and fiesta held by the club early in December which made it possible to provide complete Christmas dinners for two Latin-American families in this area, with gifts for everyone, including three adults and seven children. Mrs. Strutzel also stated that on Dec. 15, four members of the club drove to Tecate, Baja, California, and delivered to the priest of the town's church a load of warm clothing, which had been donated to the club for the people of this town. Mrs. Strutzel stressed the significance of the club's name which, in translation, means "Friendship and Aid," and urged everyone to pass along the word that membership is open to all whose interests coincide with those of the club.

The Amistad Y Ayuda Club meets the first Thursday of each month. Prospective members may obtain more information about it by calling Mrs. Strutzel or Mrs. H. V. Francis.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Most toddlers go through a stage of saying "no" to everything whether they mean it or not. Ways to cut down a determined one's "no's":

- Have you ever thought your toddler may be learning to be negative through too many "no's" from you? Your "no's" will be more effective, less likely to be imitated, if used only when necessary.
- "No's" are best ignored when the reasons behind them are not serious.
- When you must restrict, diplomacy, diversion and direction work more wonders than threats.

Accentuate goodness to cut down negatives at mealtimes. How? Offer foods with colors and flavors that sing. Like Gerber Junior Foods... prepared and seasoned with an eye to enjoyment. Then you might try a selling job, by telling junior how good the food is. A taste or two, accompanied with an "um-mm" from you, is most convincing. If you curb frowns at dawdling and cultivate smiles when your toddler does eat well, you're on your way to establishing good eating habits.

Gerber offers wonderful variety... over 40 Junior Foods, cooked with special care to preserve the utmost in nutritive values... the ultimate in flavor-appeal.

Safety measures. Of course, all of us know the basic safety precautions for introducing toddlers. Things that may slip your mind: (1) A forgotten table lighter. (2) A cleaning compound not returned to an out-of-reach haven. (3) A medicine bottle left on a reachable sink.
